

Yes, to cell phones, with some restrictions defined by FCC and the industry. For example, when booking a ticket you request a "cellphone area", seats where cellphones are allowed to be used.

Laptop computers use cellphone technology as well to send and receive email and internet this communication should be allowed as well. All other public carriers allow cell phones, pda's and laptops. My two cents on the topic, thanks!